

The Monmouthshire Antiquarian Association, The Gwent County History Association in conjunction with Llangwm Local History Group

present

Llangwm History Day

Saturday July 1st

Llangwm Village Hall

10.00 am registration and coffee

The event aims to showcase the history of Llangwm. The day will consist of lectures in Llangwm village hall and a walk around the village and visit to St Jerome's Church.

The speakers and their subjects are:-

- Professor Maddy Gray from the University of South Wales who will discuss the two Churches and especially the Church of Jerome and its importance in the history of the County.

- Tony Hopkins the County Archivist at Gwent Archives who will talk on the fascinating common place book of John Gwyn.
- Rev. Canon Dr Arthur Edwards who will discuss to the background of the Baptist movement with particular reference to the Baptist chapel in the village.
- Christabel Hutchings will cover the National School movement and the National School logbooks and accessions books relating to Llangwm held at Gwent Archives.
- Peter Strong will discuss Llangwm in relation to the evidence given to the Royal Commission on 'Women and Children In Agriculture', 1869.

A ploughman's Lunch will be served and tea and coffee provided on arrival and mid-afternoon. Booking is essential COST INCLUDING LUNCH: £12:

Please make cheque payable to Monmouthshire Antiquarian Association and send to: Richard Hutchings at 1 Fields Park Ave, Newport, NP20 5BG. There are only 60 places available so be sure to make your reservation quickly.

DIRECTIONS to Llangwm Village Hall. Llangwm is about four miles south-east of Usk on the B4235 road to Chepstow. The Post Code for the car park is NP15 1HQ.